

Directions: Anticipate how the laser rays will refract and reflect in the situations below. Draw what you expect to see. Then draw what actually happens when you try this for real. If your expectation was correct, circle it. E = expected. A = actual

